This application form must be submitted to the WDF by email (corporate@dartswdf.com) no later than 1st August in the year in which membership is requested including scans of the following original documents:

1. Your Constitution/Bye-Laws, which must be in English and certified by an authorised translator.
2. Your current Bank Statement and Financial Balance Sheet to verify your financial status.
3. A formal letter of application, which must be written on official headed notepaper.
4. Proof of recognition as the official governing body for Darts (if applicable).
5. Proof of recognition by the National Olympic Committee (if applicable).
6. Proof of funding from your government or National Sports Council (if applicable).

In addition an application fee of USD 200.00 must be paid into the WDF bank account (see details below) before this application can be processed.

Membership must be achieved in the same calendar year in which the application fee was paid. Failing this, a new application and application fee must be submitted.

The WDF Executive will contact you after the initial examination of your application and the above mentioned documents.

If your application has passed the first stage you will be asked to send originals of all required documents by 'registered courier service' to a WDF Executive Officer (to be notified).
